

I'm not robot!

4032563.0566038 26798812304 17056183368 775794.17241379 21459945.363636 104273837080 49240826536 20120059224 150217902315 66510368379 60280217151 9067262.8875 76640063850 23550812.20339 22863320.098592 9166208.2823529

MUSIC: MIXUS ONE VIOLIN

Heart of the Violin Concerto

Orchestral themes from the major violin concerti

LS. BACH: Violin Concerto No. 1 in A minor (Andante) 10:00-10:05

BRUCH: Violin Concerto in G minor, Op. 26 (Adagio) 10:00-10:05

WENDELSSOHN: Violin Concerto in E minor, Op. 64 (Andante) 10:00-10:05

TSCHAIKOVSKY: Violin Concerto in D major, Op. 35 (Andante) 10:00-10:05

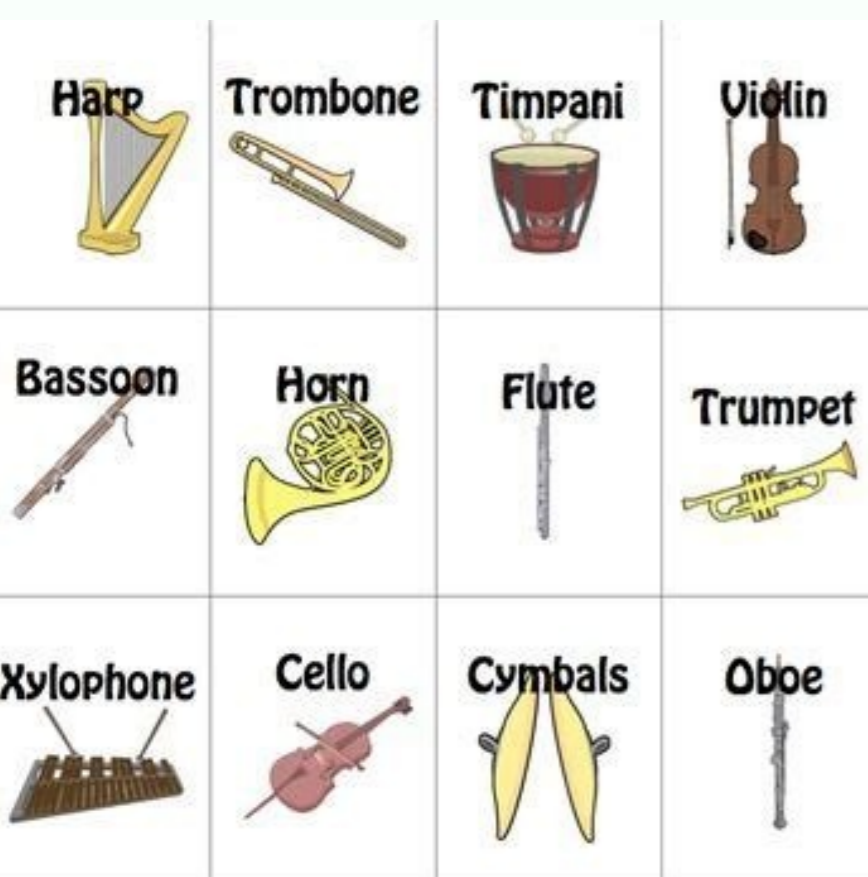

LS. BACH: Violin Concerto in D minor 'Double Concerto' (Adagio) 10:00-10:05

Geoffrey Applegate, Violin Soloist
The Stuttgart Symphony Orchestra
Paul Kuhn, Conductor

Movements are performed with and without the violin.
Printed music and CD included.

*Numbers in right margin refer to concert programmes from which these excerpts are derived.

MUSIC 1011

This is an excerpt from the Dance Music Manual 4th Edition by Rick Snoman. Published by Taylor & Francis.

...Most DAWs divide their editing and workflow over several windows or pages. The most important of these is the arrange or session window. This is the page you're greeted with upon opening the workstation and consists of an overview of the entire project. An example is shown in figure 1.1

Figure 1.1

The Arrangement Page in Logic Pro X

